

2013 Summer Science Workshop

For Teachers Grades 1-8

Real World Science---Farming Across the Curriculum

Presented by

Texas Farm Bureau

Date: Friday, July 19, 2013

Place: Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Office
1253 Civic Center Loop, San Marcos, TX

Time: 8:30am - 4:00pm

Sponsors: Hays County Farm Bureau; Hays County-Texas A&M AgriLife Extension; Texas Farm Bureau

Inquiry Based Activities for the

Hands-on Workshop Sessions

STEM Classroom

including PLANTS AND SOILS, ENTOMOLOGY AND MORE!

Participants Will Receive

Texas Farm Bureau's

the 21st Century "

"Food and Fiber for

(Ag in the Classroom Resource Guide with lessons correlated to TEKS and STAAR objectives)

"Cotton's Journey: A Field Trip in a Box"

"Oh Say Can You Seed? All About Flowering Plants"

Great Teaching Ideas for Integrating Agriculture into the Classroom

PLUS

→ 6 Hours of Continuing Professional Education Credit ←

(Includes 6 Hours GT Credit)

To register for this FREE workshop contact Jeff Ammons at (512)496-3905, or email: jammons@txfb.org by May 30th.

Limited Space Available

Lunch will be provided